POPE FRANCIS

A Good Mother Helps Her Children. A mother does not stop at just giving life; with great care she helps her children grow, gives them milk, feeds them, teaches them the way of life, accompanies them always with her care, with her affection, with her love, even when they are grown up. And in this, she also knows to correct them, to forgive them and understand them. She knows how to be close to them in sickness and in suffering. In a word, a good mother helps her children to come of themselves, and not to remain comfortably under her motherly wings, like a brood of chicks under the wings of the broody hen.

WE MUST LEARN TO AWAIT GOD'S MERCY.

As he has waited for our conversion, a time to quiet down is needed after the tumult and chaos caused by sin in our soul, and God provides this time to the sinner when he wishes him to await his mercy. The sinner should not, then, become impatient or discouraged or, still worse, complain and give in to doubts about the divine mercy, but he should remember the God-inspired words of Isaiah: If you return and be quiet, you shall be saved. In silence and in hope shall your strength be (Is.30:15).
