POPE FRANCIS:

Bearing Fruit in Old Age. A people who does not take care of grandparents, who does not treat them well, has no future! Why does it have no future? Because such a people loses its memory and is torn from its roots. But beware: It is your responsibility to keep these roots alive in yourselves with prayer, by reading the Gospel, and with works of mercy. In this way we will remain as living trees, that even in old age will not stop bearing fruit. One of the most beautiful aspects of family life, of our human life as a family, is caressing a baby and being caressed by a grandfather and a grandmother.

To You, O God, Fountain of Mercy, I come a sinner. May You wash away my impurity.

○ Sun of Justice, give sight to the blind.

○ Eternal Healer, cure the wounded.

○ King of Kings, restore the despoiled.

○ Mediator of God and man, reconcile the sinful,

○ God, have pity on the wretched,

show leniency to the guilty,

bestow life on the dead,

reform the impious,

and give the balm of grace

to the hard of heart.

~ St. Thomas Aquinas

St. Rose School website:

YOU ARE INVITED: For over 100 years, St. Rose Catholic School has offered a Catholic education to the children of Perry County. We do not educate children because they are Catholic. We educate children because we are Catholic. We are proud of our religious heritage and our civic heritage.

During the past year, we have been reconfiguring the building and enhancing our educational offerings. A part of the educational experience is through service projects, field trips and guest speakers.

Our students celebrate their Catholic heritage on a daily basis. Almost half of our graduates go on to attend Catholic High Schools.

On February 7th, St. Rose will be hosting an Open House from 2:00-4:00 p.m. We would like to invite you to take a few moments and visit our school, so that you can see firsthand what an asset our school is to the entire community.
