POPE FRANCIS:

The Family that prays together stays together. Don't forget this is important! There we come to know God, to grow into men and women of faith, to see ourselves as members of God's greatest family, the Church. In the family we learn how to love, to forgive, to be generous and open, not closed and selfish. We learn to move beyond our own needs, to encounter others and share our lives with them. That is why it is so important to pray as a family! So important! That is why families are so important in God's plan for the Church!

The Eucharistic

The manna in the desert was the gift of God's mercy. Loving Savior, Bread of Life, your mercy is always manna. And your mercy is from age to age. You fill the hungry with good things. For you are the Giver of multiplied loaves for famished masses. You are the Master who seats his servants to table and waits on them himself with himself.

Increase our trust in your mercy. What father would hand us a stone when we ask for a loaf? The birds in the sky do not sow or reap. Yet our heavenly Father feeds them. That feeding is mercy. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for this mercy.

SCHOOL NEWS FROM:MR. MEDAUGH, PRINCIPAL

In late October 2014, Fr. Jim asked me to consider being the next principal of Saint Rose Catholic School. It was not until late February 2015 that I told him I would take on the job. I thought I had weighed all the costs and potential benefits. It turns out I had not. I was not prepared for the intellectual stress. I was not prepared for the emotional stress. I was not prepared for the social stress, and I was not prepared for the physical stress. I always wondered why people resigned and said simply "for personal reasons." It leaves many unanswered questions. So without going into a great deal of detail, I will explain my thought process of making this difficult decision.

I have spent from about February 2016 until late April talking to people who could offer insight on being a principal, discussing my skill set with people on the diocesan level, priests I know, family members, teacher friends, and other principals.

I believe that I have done very well with the skill set that I have. But, the fact remains there are skills needed to be a principal that I do not possess and at sixty-two years old don't care to develop.

Shane Doan is a hockey player for the Arizona Coyotes. He is a respected Christian leader with that organization and throughout the National Hockey league.

In the book, Toward the Goal, he writes, "Be the man or woman God wants you to be. and don't be superficial with your relationship to God. Be real. If you're an eagle, be an eagle. But, if you're a gopher, be the best gopher you can be."

"It's easy to assume that if you're successful in one area, then you will be successful in everything., Be OK with saying 'I'm not that, I'm good at this. Let me be the best I can be at this. And God will take care of the rest.'" It's time to be the best husband and father I can be. It's time to be a better steward of the generous gifts God has given me. It's time to be the best brother and son I can be. It's time to be the best grandpa I can be.

In eighteen years, I will be eighty years old, roughly the age my father is now. I have to decide how I want to live these next years and with whom I want to spend that time.

So after much thought, discussion and prayer, I have decided to retire from Saint Rose Catholic School.
